Winter in July: July 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 — 9:00 to 1:00 pm Instructors: Katelyn Baird & Erin Kinney 4 child min/15 child max $225 Welcome to "Winter in July" at The Marylhurst School! In this weeklong camp we will be getting chilly with some icy activities and exploring all the different ways we can use ice. Campers will need a change of clothes, a water bottle, a light snack and a lunch. Please apply sunscreen before coming to camp. One snack or food item will be made by campers this week, so please let us know of any allergies or sensitivities.	Pokemon: July 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 — 9:00 to 3:00 pm Instructors: Laura Olson & Hannah Meers 6 child min/15 child max $275 Welcome Pokemon Trainers! This camp is just for you. Pokemon are creatures that come in all shapes, sizes, and personalities. Some live in oceans; others live in caves, towers, rivers, or tall grasses. You will learn to capture, train, and raise your Pokemon for battle. In your quest to become a top Pokemon Trainer you will learn to distinguish common species from rare Legendary Pokemon. Your daily mission will include crafts, games, snacks, and secret assignments that will guide you on your Pokemon journey. So, get ready, Trainers: Soon you'll be able to master almost any Pokemon challenge!	Escape Room: July 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 — 9:00 to 3:00 pm Instructors: Emily Ramirez & Laura Stahly-Dronkowski 6 child min/15 child max $275 Do you enjoy logic and puzzles? Are you a master of riddles? Can you picture yourself as a secret agent trying to save the world in a race against time? If so, this camp is for you! During the first four days of camp, we will learn about types of riddles and puzzles and consider strategies to solve them. We will then write our own ciphers, anagrams, logic puzzles and more. As we collect our own puzzles, we will begin to link them and add a fun story line. On the last day, we will host an escape room event for parents and friends to try their hand at our puzzles. Bring a snack, a lunch, and your thinking cap!

An Author a Day: July 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 — 9:00 to 1:00 pm Instructors: Katelyn Baird & Karlie Lane 4 child min/15 child max $225 Each day of this book loving camp will be spent getting to know our favorite childhood authors and their collections, large and small. From Eric Carl and The Very Hungry Caterpillar to Eric Litwin and Pete the Cat, we will be reading and crafting inspired by our author heroes.	Sew II: July 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 — 9:00 to 3:00 pm Instructors: Jessica Bernert & Mary Mahorney 7 child min/15 child max $275 Do you want to learn to sew? Eager to hone your skills acquired last summer? Sew II is for you! We will guide and assist sewers of all levels through a variety of projects, both by hand and with the sewing machine. We will expand our knowledge and appreciation of fabric when we experiment with natural fabric dyes and learn how to screen print images. You will leave this class with a completed utility apron (with plenty of pockets to hold tools, sewing notions and other special things!), a hand-sewn stuffed animal and a tote bag. Each student will need $20 for fabric shopping at Jo-Ann Fabrics.	Portland Gateway: July 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 — 9:00 to 3:00 pm Instructors: Laura Olson & Laura Stahly-Dronkowski 6 child min/15 child max $275 Are you ready for an adventure but your parents have to work? This camp will give you a chance to experience Portland as a tourist. And after this camp, you will be able to tour your whole family around downtown! Students and teachers will explore the Portland Art Museum, Powell's Books, and the Eastbank Esplanade. We will partake of the delicious foods downtown and choose as a class whether to visit food carts, bakeries or sweets shops. We will pick a day to enjoy lunch in Pioneer Courthouse Square as we listen to a summer concert on the steps. Students can dip their feet in the fountain and explore the nooks and crannies of the Multnomah County Library. This class will meet at The Marylhurst School on Monday July 17 and on Friday July 21. Tuesday-Thursday, students will travel on MAX orange line and by streetcar to experience the sights city.
